The Problem

iCAN

- “San Diego consistently ranks near the bottom [in the state] when it comes to transit evaluations.”
 - Voice of San Diego¹

The Problem

iCAN

- “The reality of San Diego is on the public sector side ... an increasingly grim and visible civic reality, which is dry rot for public services and infrastructure. That’s still largely hidden.”
 - Steve Erie, Professor of Political Science at UC San Diego²

Questions

- How can we ensure that public transit reaches those who need it?
- How can we increase the quality of communication between the public and government agencies?
- How can the needs of San Diegans best be met?

The Platform

iCAN

Interactive Community Action Network

iCAN

- Quantify the needs of San Diegans
- Provide a platform for the voice of the community
